The objective of this celebration is to encourage Kids to connect with their ‘Vicinity Lake’, explore and participate in preserving it and become a stakeholder in keeping their lake alive. NBF intends to conduct Makkala Kere Habba from Feb 2020 to up to a year, covering 10 lakes.

Jogi Kere (the first of the identified lakes) helped showcase the benefits of lakes in terms of community participation, student engagement with activities like Lake Walk, Painting competition, Tree plantation, Essay Writing and Quiz Competition, etc. to create and increased awareness of A particular lake. These activities will not only engage the children around the lake vicinity to be a part of the Habba but also will increase student participation and help them to learn about the lake, its heritage, its importance for a community to thrive on, advantages of lake rejuvenation, etc.

Residents and experts too joined the Habba that truly evoked community participation making it a true blue people’s movement to revive the essence of Bengaluru and its lakes.

Harish Kumar, General Manager, Namma Bengaluru Foundation, said, “Today, Bengaluru lakes are barely surviving with garbage being dumped, toxic chemicals being let in as sewage, encroachment, low maintenance and many more. Needless to say, this is directly affecting our health and need of the hour is creating awareness and restoring these lakes. We need more and more Kids who are the future custodians who are ready to put in efforts and safeguard lakes across Bengaluru. This will help in creating little warriors who will take keen interest in protecting environmental assets”.
